

RACE EQUALITY WEEK

THE BIG PROMISE

Consider equality & equity in all I do.

Offer understanding and support to everyone <3

I promise to drive standards of policing in Worcester - to ensure all communities can talk to the police, receive help and support when needed and to expect fair and unbiased treatment - INSP Green.

Keep talking about equality to make it a normal conversation to have! - Creates more inclusion and understanding.

Be kind & inclusive to all :)

Be fair. Be kind. Listen X

Be kind and honest to everyone.

Make friends from all continents.

Do all I can to lead an anti-racist organisation and promote race equity in my external roles and learn about other cultures :)

Accept everyone for whom they are. Think before saying <3

Be kind <3

Show love to everyone! <3

Share more information. Collaborate & network more.

To think before saying something that may offend someone X

To be kind to everyone I meet irrespective of what they look like.

To encourage diversity and spread positivity wherever I go! <3

To listen. To be patient. To be kind & understanding <3

Spread love!

I promise to be more approachable and less scary! - PCSO Denning.

Make the first effort to start a conversation. Everyone out there is way kinder than you think <3

To spread positivity & build bridges to connect us and bring us even closer!

More open & engaged. Less uniform! - Gary OTUN.

Educate myself ❤️

Slay always.

Be kind and accept everyone.

Promote equality and fairness.

Continue to talk to my children about race equality

Look at online training on micro aggressions and race equality

Educate myself further

I pledge to more curious and learn about people's cultures and struggles

I will challenge racial remarks even if it is uncomfortable

I wont be afraid to speak up when I see unfair comments

Learn about people's experiences

Say something if I hear someone say something that might be offensive

Listen, Learn, Research and Read more

Be equal and fair to everyone

I will attempt to organize taster sessions with sports club for REN members