

Student Council Motion Proposal

Rallying the University to represent societies within their Open days

Policy Number:	2018-19_004	Policy Date	13/11/2018
Policy Proposer: (Include name and student number)	James Gould 17016170
Policy Seconder: (Include name and student number)	Lucy Conn President

Summary:

This policy seeks to rally the university to include community-based societies within the University Open Day programme.
 Community-based societies would include but not be limited to, the African and Caribbean Society, LGBTQ+ Society, Student Minds Society, and the Student Parent Network.

Student Council Notes the Following Facts:

- Representation of societies would be attractive to and inclusive of prospective minority students, which could be a determinative factor for university choice
- Doing as such would align with the University's strategic plan "to stand out as a visionary and inclusive university that challenges and overcomes barriers to participation in higher education"

Student Council Holds the Viewpoint That:

- Adoption of this proposal would likely improve the quality of the University's open days by appealing to a wider range students
- This policy furthers the University's strategic plan

Student Council Resolves to Take the Following Action(s):

- Define community-based societies
- Contact relevant societies to register interest
- JG and LC to draft agenda and meeting for further discussion
